CMSgt. Luther "Bud" J. Wiggins USAF Retired
October 5, 1931 – June 1, 2015

Luther "Bud" Wiggins passed away peacefully from Parkinson's complications on June 1, 2015, surrounded by his family. He was born on October 5, 1931 in Corrigan, Texas and is preceded in death by his parents Henry Wiggins and Lottie McMillan Wiggins and siblings A. W., Bomer, Howard, J. G., Lela, Clarence and Sammie. He is survived by his loving wife of 37 years, Bobbye, sons Mark, Clark and Greg, daughter Brenda, daughter-in-law Maja, and grandchildren Melissa, Andjela, Garrett and Gavin.

Bud proudly and honorably served his country for 26 years in the USAF with two tours in Viet Nam. He retired in 1973 and worked as a salesman for the Stone Company for ten years. A graduate of Memphis State University, Bud enjoyed traveling, country music, dancing, and gardening.

The family would like to especially thank the medical staffs at both Northeast Baptist and Northeast Methodist hospitals for their genuine compassion and professional care.
