The family would like to express their appreciation to Concepción's caregivers Maribel Morales, Maria Martinez and Ericka Daubar for the unwavering support and care they provided for not only Concha, but the entire family.

There are not enough words to express what Concha meant in the lives of so many. She was a talented musician and musical teacher; an incomparable seamstress; a dedicated mother, wife and friend; and above all, a caretaker. She spent the majority of her life taking care of those around her, whether or not they were a part of her family. Concha was the best mother and grandmother that her family could have asked for. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. Esperamos que estés descansando en tu paraíso eterno.
