

Concepcion F. Garcia

December 8, 1932 - April 18, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Concepcion F. Garcia (Concho) on April 18, 2026, at the age 93 in Somerset, Texas.

Concepcion was born on December 8, 1932, in Comfort, Texas, to Placido Garcia and Jovita Mireles. Concho was a carpenter all his life. He helped built The Tower of the Americas. He enjoyed fishing, gardening and spending time with his dog Pee-Wee. He always had to keep busy from the moment he woke up til the time he went to bed.

He is preceded in death by his wife, parents, and daughter, Joyce.

He is survived by eight children, Jose Armando Garcia (Belinda), Helen Escobedo, Jesse Oscar Garcia (Leticia), Genevieve G. Collins, Annette Marie Smith (Evan), James M. Garcia (Maria), Phillip Garcia (Cynthia), and Letitia Garcia. 22 grandchildren, 52 great grandchildren and 10 great great-grandchildren. He was the head of the family, loved by so many, and his story will go on. He had a beautiful life and his family and friends will cherish all the memories made.

“His master replied, “Well done, good and faithful servant!”

Chaplain Martin Cisneros to officiate services.

“A good man leaves an inheritance to his children’s children.” —
Proverbs 13:22

Today, we honor Concho—a man who truly lived this out.

Concho was a jack of all trades, but more than that, he was a master of character. He could fix just about anything with his hands, but what he built in people’s lives—that’s what will last the longest.

He was a role model. Not just in what he said, but in how he lived. You could watch him and learn what it meant to work hard, to stay humble, to show up when it mattered. He didn’t need attention—his life spoke for itself.

When the Bible talks about leaving an inheritance, it’s not just about what you pass down—it’s about who you shape. Concho left behind wisdom, strength, and a way of living that will continue through everyone he influenced. That’s a legacy that reaches far beyond today.

For many of us, Concho showed us how to carry ourselves, how to face life, and how to keep going no matter what. Those lessons don’t leave—they stay with us, and we pass them on.

So yes, today we grieve. But we also stand here grateful—grateful that we had a man like Concho in our lives. A man who didn’t just talk about values—he lived them.

And the greatest way we can honor him... is to carry that forward.

“ Brother Concho was a Dedicate Deacon at Southside Baptist Church. We have much evidence of his work with all the sidewalks he built for us at the Church. We Love him very much and will see him in Heaven. Pastor Albert Byrom Sr.

“ With a heavy heart, I mourn the loss of my dear father- in-law. His passing has left a deep ache in my heart, one that words can hardly express. He was more than family to me he was kind, present, and a quiet source of strength. RIP ❤️

“ I had three role models in my life growing up, my dad, my Tio Frank, & my Tío Concho! I admired their talent (multi talented) welding, carpentry, electrical, plumbing, etc. I aspired to be like them and by the grace of God I was blessed with multiple talents in addition a professional truck driver for 51 yrs plus. RIP Tio Concho. I miss the times I would see you at The Taco Factory restaurant in Kirby n I was always an honor to pay for your breakfast.
