

Concepcion Garcia Gutierrez

December 8, 1924 - September 7, 2010

Concepcion G. Gutierrez born on December 8, 1924 went to be with the Lord on September 7, 2010 at the age of 85 years. She is preceded in death by her loving parents Anacleto and Julia Garcia. She is survived by her beloved husband Lazaro U. Gutierrez; daughter Deborah Gutierrez; sons, Ruben G. Alonzo and wife Henrietta, Edward G. Alonzo and wife Hortencia and Dennis G. Gutierrez and wife Melodye; 5 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

MG

“ My favorite thing at family gatherings was watching Tio Leo and Tia Connie dancing. They were always so distinguished. They had flare. Ted’s stories of the times your families shared always sounded like you had so much fun and so much love together

Martha Gutierrez - September 13, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RP

“ My sincere condolences to my father on the loss of his wife and life mate. May GOD put a peace in your heart that surpasses all understanding. To the children involved, Edward, Ruben, Deborah and Dennis, I will lift you up in prayer and ask GOD to give yo

Rosalinda Pierce - September 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MF

“ We offer our deepest condolences to Debbie & Family, In this time of great loss. "May The Eternal Light Embrace You And It's Warmth Be A Sign Of Your Mothers Love."
Martin & Esther And Family

Martin & Esther and Family - September 11, 2010 at 12:00 AM

GG

“ My deepest condolences to Padrino Leo & Family, on this time of our greatest loss.

Madrina Connie, you will always have a place in my heart. I will never forget your voice when I would call you for your birthdays; this was a tradition that was given

Gilbert R. Gutierrez - September 11, 2010 at 12:00 AM

PG

“ How they use to sing and dance under the summer stars while managing all our needs. Tia Connie and my mom knew how to camp-out at Garner State park in style. You could hear them laughing the whole night- echoing through the Hill Country, announcing thei

Phillip Gutierrez - September 10, 2010 at 12:00 AM