

Constance Magdaline Friesenhahn

February 26, 1924 - May 14, 2016

On Saturday, May 14, 2016, Constance Magdaline Kleck Friesenhahn, better known as "Connie", gained her angel wings at the age of 92. Connie was born on February 26, 1924 to Katharina Boecker and Peter Kleck in her hometown of Fredericksburg, Texas. After graduating from St. Mary's High School in Fredericksburg, she moved to San Antonio. She was an avid music lover and sang and danced in operettas before marrying Alton H. Friesenhahn in 1948. She was very proud that she had 5 children--4 boys and 1 girl. She had a long career as a Systems Analyst with the Federal Government. She retired and then became a very successful real estate broker founding East Central Home & Land Finders, where she worked for another 25 years. Connie was very keen and also was determined to receive her Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, long after her prosperous career. She was an accomplished ballroom dancer and kept dancing until she was in her eighties. She was full of life and also sang for Beethoven Manchester Halle in her latter years. She also loved going and meeting with friends for lunch at the Commander's House downtown. She was preceded in death by her two sons, Jimmy and David Friesenhahn; her children's father, Alton Friesenhahn; son-in-law, Jack Anglin; her parents, two sisters, one brother, and one great-grandchild. She is survived by her children, Diane Anglin, Dale Friesenhahn and wife Janet, Danny Friesenhahn and wife Sandy, and daughter-in-law Shirley Friesenhahn. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren, one brother and one sister.
