“ My heart is heavy, but my soul is strong, for I know my grandma is at peace. We miss you so much but understand it was time to go. You left us so peaceful & so beautiful, at home, surrounded by family each day and luckily you had more awake days than asleep within hospice. We actually got to all say our goodbyes and share great memories during the last difficult days. As it still seems unreal and hard to cope with You have been a beacon of strength for our family for decades; may you rest in peace. ☐ WE LOVE YOU SO MUCH.

“ Grandma was the first to start the Cumbia lines at a party. She was the light of every one who knew her. She had the best sense of humor and could make anyone laugh. Even to the last day she was able to dorks just making us laugh so loud . I Always felt guilty if I missed her call and had to call her back, but then it became something I looked forward to if I did miss them , because you never knew what she would say in her voicemails. I'm thankful for those silly voicemails or just ones she said I love you. Towards the end I could see and hear how much pain she was in , so I'm thankful God gave her eternal peace and comfort. And I'm forever grateful for the time we spent together .
