

Cortney Elizabeth Farias

October 10, 1983 - June 9, 2024

Cortney Elizabeth Farias began her journey of life on October 10, 1983. She was the baby of the family and youngest child to David Daniel & Gloria Martinez Vera Perez. Cortney was happily married in 2004, in San Antonio Tx. She is survived by her beloved husband of 20 years, Jesse Farias, and her two children; Prominence Lalise & Silas Joel Farias. Cortney is also survived by four older sisters Misty Edwards, Julie Domangue, Christina Abila, Michelle Ledesma and one brother, David Perez Jr. Cortney got to know and love her eight nieces and two nephews that she has left behind: Joshua & Sara Stout, Amberlee Castille, Carlie Andre, Brooklee Domangue, Kenna, Alyssa & Bethany Edwards, Neveah & Shiah Abila. Cortney is known as a beloved daughter loving sister, amazing mother, strong woman, and an astounding writer. It was easiest for her to express herself through poetry and music. Growing up, Cortney excelled in basketball. When you saw her on the court, you knew the game was about to be good. Cortney was known for lighting up a dark room. The amount of strength one person can carry can be questionable, but not when it came to her... Cortney gave a new meaning to strength. Cortney was strong minded; she was a fighter. Every obstacle that came in her path, she took it on headfirst. Cortney is forever a role model to her nieces and the younger generation of women that has been created. She will always be remembered for her beauty lessons, great taste in music & warm-hearted conversations.
