“ Betty
What amazing courage Craig had, he fought the good fight. I'm so glad that I was able to meet Craig. I haven't known many people with the drive he had for life. May all his memories be remembered by all those he touched.

“ Betty,
I want to express my deepest condolences to you and your sons over the passing of Craig. I remember meeting both of you during 2006 WNBA season. You had just gotten tickets and you were both very excited. Then the following season you got the

“ Betty,
Your love and devotion to your husband has been such a witness to your friends and family. Your spirit is so refreshing and being able to celebrate his life and the time you had together is great. So sorry I was not able to make it to the service.
