

Crystal Mae Lujan

July 15, 1979 - June 7, 2026

Crystal Mae Lujan, born in Conrad, MT on July 15, 1979, and peacefully passed away in her home in San Antonio, TX on June 7, 2026, at the age of 46. She leaves behind her loving husband of 23 years, Samuel Lujan; her six children Alex, Tristan, Desirae, Samantha, Savannah, and Hailey Lujan, grandchildren Aria and Guillermo (Memo), and sister Jeanna Kiniery.

Crystal was a loving wife, sister, mother, tia, and grandmother. Despite her small size, she managed to fill every room with contagious laughter and was never afraid to take up space. Crystal was an intelligent, beautiful, and fierce woman. Her heart for others was unmatched. She wore her heart on her sleeve as if it were a badge of honor, often caring for anyone she felt who needed it.

She was raised in El Paso, Texas where her extended family currently reside and moved to San Antonio, Texas where she called home for the last 12 years. Crystal had a special gift for building a village wherever she went and making everyone feel welcome.

Crystal was often described as the life of the party. No music was ever too loud, and no celebration ever lasted too long. Her energy, laughter, and love for life and Jesus brought people together and created countless cherished memories. Her legacy lives on through each of them, and she will be remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

In honor of Crystal Lujan, her celebration of life ceremony will be held at The SARA Venue in San Antonio, TX at 5:00pm on June 23, 2026.
