

Curtis A. Drumm Jr.

December 29, 1947 - March 14, 2025

Curtis A. Drumm Jr. of San Antonio, Texas, went to be with the Lord on March 14, 2025. A native Texan, he spent most of his life in the San Antonio area. Curtis lived a full life, having enjoyed 55 years of marriage to his high school sweetheart, having raised three children, and having spoiled six grandchildren. He was very active in his local church, wherein he sang in the choir, taught and attended various Bible study classes, and served as a deacon.

He liked to fish and was very good with his hands. He could fix just about anything and loved playing card games and dominos—in fact he was very competitive when it came to playing games. He was a lover of history and accomplished his goal of visiting every presidential library. He was a quiet man, who believed that actions speak louder than words. In his actions he demonstrated a deep faith in God and love for his neighbor. He loved his church, his friends and family, the Spurs, the Longhorns, and especially his wife Dorothy.

Curtis was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Dorothy Drumm. He is survived by his sister Pebble Peters (Robert Peters), his three children Scott Drumm (Jessica Drumm), Holly McCrory (Drew McCrory), Andrew Drumm (Rhiannon Drumm), six grandchildren (Montgomery Drumm, Davison Drumm, Matt McCrory, Kate McCrory, Austin Drumm, and Tyler Drumm), and his niece

Pebble Peters.
