

Cynthia Searing Brown

November 13, 1919 - December 23, 2010

B R O W N

Cynthia Searing Brown went to Heaven for Christmas on December 23rd. She joined her husband of 62 years, Robert, "The Colonel". She was born November 13, 1919 in NY, NY but grew up in Ardmore, PA. She attended Bryn Mawr College and was married in 1942, becoming a military wife and mother. She is survived by and will be lovingly remembered by her four children, Vicky Parker, Markell Rowe, Cindi Leech and husband Bill, and Scott Brown and wife Melanie. She will be terribly missed by her ten grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. Cynthia was an avid world traveler, skier and golfer. She was a long time member of Oak Hills Presbyterian Church. She was a long time member and served as president of Oak Hills CC Women's Golf Assoc. She loved volunteering for children's causes and The Welcome Lodge for many years. Services will be held at Oak Hills Presbyterian Church at 11 AM on December 30, 2010. Services will be conducted by Rev. Katheryn Barlow-Williams. She will be interred with her husband at the National Cemetery at Ft. Sam Houston following the services. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The Building Fund at Oak Hills Presbyterian Church, Boysville of San Antonio or The Gordon Heartman Foundation, San Antonio.

SERVICES

A church service will be held at 11:00 AM on Thursday, December 30, 2010 at Oak Hills Presbyterian Church with interment to follow at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.
