“ I am so sad to hear of my friends passing. I kept saying, "I need to reach out to her." She was the best volleyball player and had the longest arm to put that ball down. She was funny and didn't care if she had to roast you. She was honest and she wasn't fake. She helped me and my family at a time when I really needed it and I am forever grateful to her. It's not fair that she is gone but I am glad she is in a much better place. RIP Cindy. I will always remember that big happy smile! Panchie.
