“ Thank you for being kind and sweet to me when many were mean to me. You always said the TRUTH about some of your distant family members. You could see heart deep instead if externally like the world does I will miss you very much. The good die young. Thank you for being by my side when you thought I needed you. You were always artificial instead of fake christian.

“ *Jesse and Family:
I was so sorry to hear about Cynthia. I loved her very much and considered myself lucky to have known her. Very rarely do we get to pick "family" in life and I was honored that she picked me and mine to love, just as I loved her and her*
