“ I known Cindy for over 41 years. Cindy was a type of person that had a big heart and was always concerned about everyone. I remember Cindy with a big smile at all time and that laughter of joy she brought to everyone. Cindy took care of my son John Michael as a baby. I would leave work and knew he was in good hands. she spoiled him and treated him as her own. She had two beautiful girls who she loved dearly; Gabby and Millie. she called them mamas. Cindy was never angry and those girl knew what business was. Cindy would call Millie, Millie K and gabby Gaberila when they were in trouble and Gaberila. You'll be forever in our heart Cindy. May you Rest In Peace. ❤️

“ Cindy was a childhood running buddy, along with her brother, Michael 'Ponch' and my two brothers. What mischief we would get in. An avid tennis player, and all-around athlete, Cindy excelled at everything she tried. Even though the years separated us and our lives took us in different directions, Cindy will be deeply missed. Not only for her infectious laugh, but her witty posts on FB and caring of people. She was a treasured friend and will be dearly missed. May God comfort the families and bring peace to them knowing Cindy is with the Lord and no longer suffering. Peace to All.

“ I met Cindy and Nacho in '93 as I was a rookie officer. I would small talk with them at the then Stop and Go. A few years went by and they had the girls who would ride with them on their route. Years again went by and Cindy did her route solo as Nacho became ill. I would know around where and at what time Cindy would be on her route. I remember always shining my spotlight at her. At times I would think they were a suspicious car driving in the neighborhood at the early hours of the morning, only to find out it was my favorite paper delivery workers. She always had a Sunday paper to hand me too. Nacho passed and I was promoted and off the streets. Cindy and I still communicated every now and again, catching up. I will miss Cindy's funny laughs and silly remarks !!! Always made me laugh !!!
