

D.A. Morris, Jr.

March 26, 1922 - October 2, 2013

D.A. Morris, Jr. born March 26, 1922 went to be with the Lord on October 2, 2013, at the age of 91. He married his beloved wife Mary Ella King on January 16, 1942. He is survived by his loving wife Mary Ella Morris; daughters Fran Young, Joan Welch and husband Don, Kathy Bodenbug and husband Bill; sons Bert Morris and wife Sylvia, Terry Morris and wife Sherilyn, Shawn Morris and wife Cheryl; sister, Marguerite Huyck of Amarillo; grandchildren Nicole Young, Seth, Jared and Nathan Morris, Laura Davis, Lisa Haley, Lesleigh Kelly, Tami Champion, Michelle Keller, Alexis Swain, Jack Sommer, Kalie and Josh Morris; 24 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

D.A. Morris, Jr. was born in Gainesville, but was brought up in Canadian, Texas. He was in the Army Air Corps during WWII, worked 49 years in the Civil Service at Kelly Field Air Force Base, was Worshipful Master of Texas #8 Masonic Lodge, was Worthy Patron of Star Chapter #782, OES, Chapter Dad of Elmer J. Reece, Order of the DeMolay, and Deacon at University Park Baptist Church and member of Castle Hills First Baptist Church. Honorary Pallbearers are the members of Elmer J. Reece, Order of the DeMolay.

Services

Visitation will begin on Friday, October 4, 2013 from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A memorial service will be Saturday, October 5, 2013 at 11 AM at Castle Hills First Baptist Church, Grace Chapel.

Private Interment will take place at San Fernando III Catholic Cemetery. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Castle Hills First Baptist Church or School.