“ *Dallas,
We remember how you loved the family get togethers at Christmas time playing the games, especially the game called left, right, center, played with dice and dollar bills. That was your favorite. We treasure our memories of you at Christmas time and always.
You’re dearly loved and dearly missed.

“ So many memories created in the short time that I knew you. Good, bad, happy, and now sad. Life is too short and too often taken for granted and I'm ashamed of myself that I let some pride and a lil grudge hold me back from getting to speak with you or chill with you once more before you passed. I know your in a better place now bro and I pray for Smitty and your family during these tough times. Until we meet again my friend. Rest easy...

“ I love you little brother you are my family, that's always and forever. I'm so glad and proud to have called you my brother, you have a heart made of gold and you wore it on your sleeve. It's rare to find someone with a heart like yours especially these days and me as well as everyone else saw that I just wish I could have been there for you that night. I keep replaying in my head what I think went down and I hate it I wish I could change everything for you. I know you are at peace now please look out for my lil bro as well as your mom n dad I love you always your brother Nicholas Paul Abdo

We have known the Smith family for many years through our associations at Castle Hills First Baptist. Our hearts go out to each of your family. We didn't know Dallas personally but did meet him once or twice with Cheryl. Losing one so dear leaves a real void. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May the abundant peace and comfort of our Lord and Savior be with you. Bill & Jo Ruth Borrer

“ Dallas, I never was formally introduced to you personally, however, I knew of your love and kindness by offering Aaron a safe place to stay on more than one occasion. You will be greatly missed by both Aaron and Mathew. Thank you for always being a great friend to them. It did NOT go unnoticed

“ When Dallas and I first met we became friends fast. I saw a lot of myself in Dallas and I wanted to help guide him. I have many fun memories with Dallas that I will never forget as long as I live. I could talk about anything with Dallas and trust that he would give me a solid opinion and that he would have my best interest in mind. Even though our lives went down separate paths our friendship remained intact. I will always miss, Dallas, and can't believe we have to say goodbye to him. I will always consider him as a brother.
