She was loyal and devoted to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Our mother was the most loving, caring, giving, spiritual, compassionate and strongest mother you could ever ask for. Damasia devoted her life to caring for all her children, loving the sick, the elderly, the home bound and the widows. Mother gave us unconditional love, never expected anything in return, and she was always there for us. She not only taught us about unconditional love, but also patience, truth, joy, peace, integrity, kindness, and gentleness. She was the "rock" of our family.
