

Damian Anthony Covarrubia

August 3, 1976 - January 4, 2022

Damian Anthony Covarrubia, age 45, passed away peacefully and surrounded by his loved ones, on January 4, 2022, due to liver failure. He was born August 3, 1976, in San Antonio, Texas, to Fernando Covarrubia and Patricia Ann Ramirez. He married his longtime best friend and love, Reagan O'Neill Clark, in October of 2015.

Damian loved sports, even at an early age, and was often coached by his dad, which he loved and reminisced about often. In 1994 he graduated from Clark High School, where he continued to be active in both football and baseball. He attended the University of Texas at Austin and San Antonio College, focusing his studies on Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement. His love of the hospitality industry changed his path and, while working at Mark's on the Riverwalk in 2002, he met the love of his life, Reagan. They were instant soulmates, sharing the same family values, love of their pets, and a multitude of interests including the Dallas Cowboys. He loved all football, the San Antonio Spurs, all things Wrestling, and trips with friends to Port Aransas and New Orleans. Damian also enjoyed playing video games and anything related to Star Wars, Game of Thrones, Marvel, and DC. He was a loyal friend and considered his friends as extended family. He will be missed dearly.

Damian was preceded in death by his brother, Christopher M. Covarrubia; maternal grandfather, Eloy A. Ramirez; and paternal grandparents Juan M. and Ambrosia Covarrubia. He is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Reagan; maternal grandmother Rachel T. Ramirez; parents Fernando and Patricia; sisters Kimberly M. Touchstone (Eric) and Rachel E. Covarrubia; sister-in-law Alice Robin Avila (Zachary); nephews Arby B. Touchstone, Jasper H. Avila, and Alton J. Touchstone; niece Sophia S. Avila; and his many aunts, uncles, and cousins, all of whom he loved deeply.

“ When I was 8 years old I became an aunt for the first time. That was the day Damian was born. At the time he lived next door to us in the house on Taft and he was the joy of everyone’s eye. I will always remember him as a toddler, standing in his living room window, chewing on the ledge and looking out into our giant backyard. As the family continued to grow we shared holidays at his grandparents and great grandparents house, Easter egg hunts and piñatas. As he got older I saw him grow into a sweet and handsome young man, who loved the Dallas Cowboys, Star Wars and wrestling. I was fortunate enough to be there the night he married the love of his life Reagan and I could tell it was one of the happiest days of his life. Those are the days I will remember most, and that is the way I will always remember him. My deepest condolences and much love to his wife Reagan my sister Pat, my brother in law Fernando. My beautiful nieces Kimberly and Rachel and all the people who loved him like we do. From Elizabeth Ramirez and Johnnie Clay.

“ I had intended to speak about my Son at his rosary, but just reading his obituary & trying to write memory(s) of him is making me choke up! So I know I'd have a hard time holding it together at his rosary! So. I'm going to try this way! From the 1st day of his birth to his untimely death, our Son was a special Gift from God ! He was a beautiful baby w/his curly hair & bright eyes! He was a great joy to all who saw him ,especially his Ramirez grandparents & great grandparents. My parents also loved him so much & would spoil him all the time. He was loved by all his many aunts, uncles, & cousins on both sides of the family! He adored his two younger sisters (Kimberly & Rachel) & in turn they adored him! The perfect baby, we'd put him to sleep at night & he would sleep till his mother & I would wake up. If he did wake up he would quietly play in his crib until one of us woke up. He was a great Son, always respecting his parents , his relatives & adults as he was taught He never posed any disciplinary problems for us at all ! He had a great heart, like his mother, and a temper & stand up for yourself, like his father! He loved all sports, but baseball was his passion! When he was near his unfortunate passing, his Mother and I asked him to go be with his many relatives & friends that preceded him! We did not want him to endure any more than he already had! Losing him so early in his life is more than his mother & I can handle! I hear him speaking to me & letting me know that he's ok with all his family & friends who welcomed him into God's graces! He asks me to watch over his mother & his beloved Reagan, his sisters and the rest of his family! I could continue to share memories of my beautiful Boy, but it's difficult to continue! If people don't approve of what I'm about to say, it matters not. I do now & will continue to try & reconcile the fact that 47 years ago, God, in his wisdom, decided he needed his brother Christopher and then now our only Son! I keep waiting for a sign or something from him, but as yet, he hasn't answered! I have not & I don't intend to lose my faith in God and I understand , God listens to all prayers & requests yet sometimes the answer is "No"! Lastly, I would ask that everyone keep your families close & not allow them to isolate themselves from the rest of their families & friends, because there are so many things nowadays that impose their influences on our loved ones! I will regret to the end of my life, that I didn't act on his behalf sooner & with more commitment when he needed his father the most, during his trying times! if I had I might have been able to save him or change his course to avoid his untimely passing! As I said, I will regret it from now until the day of my passing, and I have asked my beloved Son to forgive me for not acting sooner & decisively! Rest in peace our beloved Son, and know that your Mother and I will miss you eternally & will continue to love & cherish the time we had with you! As I said to you, your Mother & I gave you a part of our hearts & souls to take with you! We will never be complete as we will have that hole in our hearts, minds, & souls where you reside! Be happy our beautiful & beloved Son, your Mom & Dad send their undying love with you!
