

Dan Raymond Banks

August 19, 1942 - November 21, 2022

Dan Raymond Banks of Boerne, TX passed from this life to his heavenly home on Monday, November 21, 2022, at the age of 80.

Dan was born on August 19, 1942 in San Antonio, Texas to Raymond L. Banks and Lorine M. (Hielscher) Banks. He was baptized at St. Paul Lutheran Church in San Antonio on August 30, 1942, and confirmed into the Christian faith at Mt. Olive Lutheran Church of San Antonio in April 1956. He became a member of Concordia Lutheran Church on March 25, 1962.

He graduated from Thomas Edison High School in 1960, completed service in the US Army Reserves, and later graduated from St. Mary's University in 1965 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree.

Dan went to work for Southwestern Bell, where he met his first wife Wynona (Spencer) Banks. They were married October 7, 1967 and were blessed with two daughters, Laura and Jennifer. Dan and Wynona were married 40 wonderful years until Wynona's passing in 2008.

As a widower, he then met Julie Verschoyle of San Antonio, who called him the "love of her life". They were married at Concordia on May 15, 2010, and enjoyed life in Fair Oaks, TX.

Dan had a long career in telecommunications engineering, with Southwestern Bell/AT&T until his early retirement in 1991. He then went to work with Alexander Utility Engineering until he fully retired in 2019.

After retiring, he successfully co-founded Wise Star Energy to pursue a long-time passion for the oil and gas industry.

In 2010, he ventured into local politics and ran for Kendall County Judge. Although he didn't win, he ran an honorable and straightforward campaign, and had a great time doing so.

Dan was a very active member at Concordia, including service as Elder for many years, chairman of the ministry building committee at the Basse Rd. campus, contributed to plans for the 1604/Huebner campus, and was president of the congregation in 1980.

He loved fishing, hunting, golf, the San Antonio Spurs, Dallas Cowboys, barbeque, and cars (especially Chevys) – but most of all, his family and his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

He is survived by his second wife of 12 years, Julie Verschoyle Banks; daughters, Laura A. Arldt and husband James of Austin, TX; Jennifer L. Lee and husband Timothy of Bastrop, TX, and their daughters Abigail Maxine and Elizabeth Louise; foster daughter, Ann Marie Johnston and husband Matt of Rockport, TX, and their daughters, Sarah Evelyn and Briannah Paige; brother-in-law Joe E. Spencer and wife Mary of New Braunfels, TX; nephew Joseph J. Spencer and niece Robin Marie Anderson of Houston, TX; great-niece Victoria Marie Anderson of Houston, TX; and several cousins.

Also surviving Dan are his step-sons Aaron Verschoyle Jordan and wife Sheena, and children 1LT AJ Jordan, Walker, Aubrey and Cooper.; Christopher Shane Jordan and fiancée Erin Gilson; and Anthony Eugene

Jordan and fiancée Ariagna Briceno, and children Colten and Sadie; and several great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at Concordia Lutheran Church in San Antonio on Friday, December 2, 2022. Visitation will be held at 10:00am, funeral service at 11:00 am, with burial following at Boerne City Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to Concordia Lutheran Church or Rotary District 5840 are welcome.

“ Julie and family. I am sorry for your loss but know Dan is Home in Heaven and has peace with our Lord. He was always so kind and gracious to me and honest in everything he told me. I was always glad to see you at the Dienger and you both brought a smile to my face anytime I was with you.

I am working in North Texas and will not be able to attend services but I will be praying for comfort and peace for you.

Julie, please call me (210-383-6414) or send me your number as I only have Dan's number and email. I would love to visit with you. Trust God for all.
