

Daniel "Danny Boy" Edward Pumnut

July 9, 1991 - April 11, 2024

Daniel "Danny Boy" Edward Pumnut was born on July 9, 1991 in Redmond WA. He passed away at the age of 32 in San Antonio, TX. Daniel was a cherished son to his father John Pumnut, and late mother, Leni Pumnut.

Daniel leaves behind a loving family; his father John, sisters Simona Lascu, Lori Sanciu, Jeannette Negru, and Jennifer Matei, and his dear cousins Ashley and Jayden Lascu, Arielle and Addalynn Sanciu, Sephora Matei, and Seraiah, Elijah, and Ethan Negru.

Daniel's hobbies included camping, playing the cello and piano, drawing, and reading, and his sense of humor and generosity of spirit made him a magnetic presence, drawing others close with ease and warmth.

A radiant personality with a passion for the medical field, Danny Boy excelled as a radiologic technologist. He accomplished his lifelong dream of authoring an adventure mystery novel, "Blue Sky Diamond." His thirst for knowledge was paralleled by his love for the outdoors and his fondness for travel. Daniel maintained many detailed journals of cherished childhood memories, which remain as a treasured family legacy.
