

Daniel Jock Hunter

October 31, 1958 - December 25, 2017

Daniel Jock Hunter, eldest son of Harold Lee Hunter and Peggy Odom Hunter, passed away on Christmas Day. He leaves behind his wife of 35 years, Cynthia Dolan Hunter, two daughters, Meagan Turnage and Paige Hunter; and siblings, Craig and Andrew Hunter, and Harriet Ballard. Dan lives on through his first grandchild, Katherine Mae Turnage, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Born in Kingsville, TX on October 31, 1958, Dan was a Marine Corps brat who traveled the U.S. but always considered Texas home. He met his best friend, high school sweetheart and future wife, Cynthia, at Burges High School in El Paso, TX. After graduation, he received a full scholarship to play football at The University of Texas at Austin where he excelled as a defensive tackle. Upon receiving his Bachelor of Business Administration, Dan started his career as a financial planner at Gill Savings Bank, where he earned his Certified Financial Planner designation. Later, Dan went on to manage teams of financial planning professionals at various financial institutions in Texas and California, and was most recently employed with USAA.

To many, Dan was known as a “gentle giant,” confidante and true friend. His sharp wit and kind heart endeared him to those fortunate enough to have known him. An avid reader, his many interests included football, business, cooking, fishing, and music; but, ultimately, Dan’s true passion was his family. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the Salvation Army.
