“ Im blessed to have been your daughter in this life time. I dont think theres any words I can find to describe how much I'll miss you, but I know you hear me whenever I tell you. Oh how I wish we could have just one more bbq together where we all sit and laugh outside for hours, play some card games, and eat. However, i know that youre not gone forever, and this is definitely not a goodbye, I'll just see you later.

Thank you so much for showing me the truest fatherly love, and thank you for all the great memories. I have so many stories about you to tell that i'll never stop telling. I promise im gonna always keep your memory alive, dad.

*I love you forever. Make sure to save a spot for us up there.

“ My lover, my hunny bunny. There will never be another for me. 25 years doesn't feel long enough. My life will never be the same. I'm giving this cup of suffering to our Lord Jesus Christ but that doesn't change how heartbroken I am. I miss your touch, our conversations, vacations, family game nights, BBQ's, your morning kisses on my forehead before you left for work, how you always made me laugh. We were the center of your world. This is so surreal, I'm still trying to make sense of my new reality. There is a huge void in my life. Words can't express how much we miss you. We will be together again one day, until then I will keep your memory alive in my heart. I love you so much my hunny bunny ❤️❤️❤️

“ Danny, you had a way of making everyone feel welcome in your home. You're loved by so many. Your kindness, humor, and incredible skills on the grill will not be forgotten. I'll never forget being a mosca with you as you're cutting brisket or bringing in the meat off the grill.
We are all so heartbroken, but so grateful for the memories we shared. Love you, bro.
