

Danny Delane Deaver

May 12, 1933 - February 21, 2021

Danny Delane Deaver born May 12th 1933 in Dallas, Texas passed away Sunday, February 21, 2021 at the age of 87.

Danny is survived by his wife, Helen Deaver; his sons, Paul Deaver and Kent Deaver; Paul's wife Rondia Kay Deaver and his grandchildren, Dylan Ringo Deaver, and Lena Deaver whom referred simply to him as Big Daddy. He is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his two brothers, Tommy Deaver and Bill Deaver, his father, Hayes Deaver, and mother, Cecil Rhodes Deaver. He was a loving and devoted Husband, Father, and Grandfather. Danny was a Korean War Veteran where he enlisted in the Army and became an Infantryman and Paratrooper. After serving his country in Korea, he returned home and attended The University of Texas. It was in Austin where he met the love of his life Helen Grace Beck. They enjoyed a full and loving marriage for 61 years with many highlights. He was successful in many business ventures including a transmission business in Austin TX, and a Harley-Davidson Dealership in El Paso TX. In 1980 he moved the family to San Marcos, TX where he was in the car business until he retired in 1998. He was a very talented artist and craftsman, but his passions were riding motorcycles, flying airplanes and driving at high rates of speed. Dad had many great friends and cherished each and every one of those friendships. Dad was loved by many, embraced life, was generous to anyone that needed help, and will be missed dearly by everyone that was ever lucky enough to have met him.
