“ It's difficult to believe Dan's been gone for over a year now. I still think about calling him sometimes and sincerely wish I could. I never visited as he had wished and I didn't call him nearly as often as he had wished. I knew there was always tomorrow when I wouldn't be so busy. He was always there to call when I wanted to talk. I'll always be deeply regretful that I didn't make more time for him over the years. He was a nice guy, very caring, also very funny. He knew just what to say to make me laugh. When we did talk, we'd be on the phone for an hour; we never ran out of things to say and he'd make me laugh often. He was misunderstood by a lot of people, and after he passed I found out how many people had really liked him. He didn't think anyone from work liked him except 2 or 3 of us, and it's too bad more people didn't keep in touch with him. I'll always deeply regret not doing so more often myself. I always knew that someday I'd find more time to visit or talk with him...but sadly that “someday” will never come again.

“ I was sorry and saddened to hear of Dan's passing and want to express my most sincere sympathy to the Family during this difficult time. I worked with Dan intermittently from 1999 - 2015, he was a valuable and respected member of our Team. Dan focused on the good of his co-workers and the good of his Team. My thoughts and prayers are with his Family, Dan will be missed. May God bless and comfort the Family.

“ Sending my sincerest condolences to Dan's friends and family. Dan and I worked together for many years at USAA beginning in the 1980's. I remember him participating in every gathering he was invited to. He seemed to really enjoy being around people and observing all the fun, drama, chaos, and craziness that ensued on a daily basis. Dan was super-smart, knowledgeable, super-productive, had a very sharp wit and a terrific sense of humor. I also remember that Dan loved his dogs, movies, music, and fixing up the house that he bought. Rest in peace, Dan, your friendship, goodness, and great talents will never be forgotten.

“ To Dan's family and loved ones: I was so sad to hear of Dan's passing. Please accept my condolences and know that my prayers and thoughts are with all of you. I pray our Lord comforts you with His love.

Dan and I were co-workers at USAA for several years. I enjoyed our conversations and will forever be grateful for his wise and encouraging words concerning my pets but most importantly, concerning my retirement. Dan was always kind and polite to me- that is something I will never forget. Rest with the angels Dan and enjoy all eternity.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Danny Miller. I am sure you have many precious memories of your lives together. I encourage you to share them and keep in prayer to the God of all comfort and he will give you the strength and comfort you need. Also do not forget to ask for relief of any kind from family and friends. They are grieving also. Proverbs 17:17 states: “ a true friend shows love at all times and is a brother who is born for times of distress”. We cannot do this alone. May prayer and friendship and love help you through this difficult time.
