“ *Maxine,
We spent some wonderful times together and now, the memories of all those years flood back into our thoughts. During those evenings, special events and trips, Dorie’s faith in God was always evident and of greatest importance to him. It was also so evident that family and extended family were absolutely a crucial part of who he was and helped identify who he was in this lifetime. As we believe, as he believed, we follow God’s plan and we trust in God that His plan leads us to an everlasting award...I believe Dorie is there now. It is up to us to keep him alive here, in this lifetime, through the stories we tell and the memories we share.*

Max, we go back a long way. I remember For I being the skinny young man courting you. Seeing him and you in front of your mama's store. I remember you , the itty bitty girl with biiiig hair. I often wondered how you could hold your little head with all that hair. Doris and you, were destined to be together for a life time. You could see how much he loved you, by the way he looked at you then and now! Be strong, it will take time. Jesse and will have you and your family in our prayers. Love you Max.
