“ When Ernie married my daughter he got a package deal with her son Ryker. I was the only grandmother Ryker had. Darlene opened her arms to Ryker just like her own grandchildren. She was so full of hugs and kisses and he truly felt her love just as she meant the world to him. 💕💕

“ Im so shaken by her passing. She was my dad's (Dan) love of HIS life. She took such good care of him thru the end. People say "oh their smile lit up a room" but in her case it truly did. She had the most infectious laugh. She never did meet a stranger. Everyone was family and wherever she was it was home. She was real. There was no fake in Darlene. If it was on her mind she said it. She loved with her whole heart. She treated me as her own. I was hers. My only regret is I didnt meet her sooner. Ernie was the light of her life. She was such an amazing woman. Now she is at peace with dad. Sitting having a beer in heaven. Darlene the day you passed a bright light in the world went out. You will be greatly missed. All my love, Tonya
