“ Darlene, our friendship was so dear to me. We could talk everyday for a week and then not talk for a few weeks then pick up right where we left off. No matter what I will love you always and you will always be in my heart. I will treasure our memories together forever.

“ To my sweet childhood friend Darlene Kirk who is our angel in heaven now: I will miss you every day of my life. My childhood would not have been the same without you. We wrote "Best Friends Forever" in the cement sidewalk near my childhood house, wrote poetry about our middle school crushes, got each other Valentine's Day gifts for each other at the mall, and stayed up all night watching blockbuster videos with each other while eating Twizzlers and popcorn. We played middle school sports together, went to Business Careers High School together, and you came to my wedding and baby showers. When I moved away, we wrote text, emails, letters, and cards to each other. We sometimes grew apart, but we always tried to stay in touch and monitored each other's Facebook pages for updates. I only stayed on Facebook for you many times. I was hoping that we would do much more together in the future. As always, I will carry you in my heart wherever I go, and I will make sure our children meet. Hold a spot for me, sweet friend, and until then, I will keep writing to you. Love you always, Jean.
