

Darlyne Delores Cox

February 4, 1927 - September 3, 2020

On the evening of Thursday, September 3, 2020, Darlyne surrendered her life to her Heavenly Father with family at her bedside, praying for her. After many years of living with Cancer, she died peacefully in her home of fifty-six years here in San Antonio. The eldest of five children, she grew up in the rural community of Cottonwood, Idaho, enjoying close friendships in that clean mountain air. She met her husband in Seattle, Washington while working in Civil Service. Married over fifty years, Trueman passed in the year 2000. Darlyne, strong in character and foresight, she was fun-loving and active in her parish church -Little Flower Basilica Altar Society, Woodlawn Lake Neighborhood Association and Girl Scouts. She loved helping her friends get to church-related events when they were unable. She worked over twenty years in Civil Service at Lackland A.F.B. and Ft. Sam Houston. Darlyne is survived by her daughters, Delores Cox, Connie (Earl) Baugher, and Melody (Scott) Neely; over forty grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; as well as sister, Bonnie Lou Norris of Moscow, Idaho; and brother, Robert Schober of Elk City, Idaho, May Eternal Light shine upon her and may she rest in Peace.

“ *Delores & Parissa, Melody, Connie and sister Bonnie and brother Robert and extended family I express heartfelt sorrow and regret to you all on the death of your beloved and cherished Darlyne. She was truly an inspirational woman who I much admired. She engaged beautifully In conversation with people and I did so enjoy chatting with her. She was admirable in the way she carried herself throughout her life and especially in her final year. I wish ye all consolation at this time and I give thanks for the privilege of having met her.
