“ Dear Patillo Family,
Please accept my deepest condolences. I knew Darrel from school and although I've not seen him since, you never quite forget the people you grow up with. We will see Darrel again, but until then, I pray God gives you peace. Psalm 147

“ To the Patillo Family:

It was yesterday that I learned of Darrel's passing. I first met Darrel in 1973 when my parents moved from Chicago, Illinois to Bexar County.

We lived across the highway Medina River from the Patillo family and oftened visite

“ Charlie,

In my life's experience, there have been only a few men that come to mind, that can match the man that Darrel came to be.

I cherish the years Darrel was in my life, as I cherish all of the years Phyllis and I spent with your family
