“ On behalf of the residents and staff of The Village at Incarnate Word (formerly Incarnate Word Retirement Community) I extend our sincere sympathy to Daryl's parents and sister. Daryl was a kind and gentle man and a good employee - always ready to help others. I'm sure he was a wonderful Special ed teacher because he had the right personality and character traits for such a calling. I can imagine that he was well-liked by his students and co-workers. May God grant you peace in the time of sudden tragic loss. We hold you and Daryl in our prayers.
