

David Nelson Clifton

March 13, 1958 - October 28, 2018

Healing was not possible this side of Glory, so our Heavenly Father took David Clifton home to be healed. David was a loving son, brother, uncle and partner. He had many lifelong friends whom he cared for deeply. He worked for Freeman Decorating and several other companies as a rigger. He would hang signs and help set up for the trade shows. He left behind his mother, Virginia Rhue, sisters Doris Haby and her husband Darrell, Jamie Clark and her husband Doug, loving friend Katie Meyer, nephews Dylan Haby, Tony and Nick Burdette and Micaiah Shields as well as many loving family members and friends. He was greeted at the gates of Heaven by his father Bill Rhue, his sister Pat Shields and a host of family and friends that preceded him in death. His family wishes to express their appreciation to the doctors and nurses from University Hospital Medical Center for the wonderful care they provided for David and his family during the time he was there. We will truly miss his loving personality, charming sense of humor and his kindness to everyone he met.
