“ Thank you everyone who attended our father’s funeral service. Our father was a strong and very proud man. He meet and married our beautiful mother May 1948. He loved our mother and children unconditionally ! As children we have fond memories of his time served in the Air Forces as a Military Police Officer for which he served our country proudly. After his time served in the Air Forces our father went on to work at Kelly A.F.B as a guard for several years. Retirement was not for him-he started his own Landscaping business working closely with Ray Ellison Homes. His final years we’re at a State Facility where he served as Chief of Security. I guess security and protecting people were always of his life. Our father’s pass time was spent ready Louie L’Amour Western novels. He loved John Wayne, Billy the Kid and Clint Eastwood movies 😊 His children love and greatly miss both our parents...dad, mom and Janice are in heaven together till we meet again. God Bless and protect our family during this very difficult time 🙏
Love and prayers, Yolanda
