David De La Garza

May 12, 1931 – March 24, 2019

David was a beloved father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend to all. David, age 87, was born in Mission, TX., graduated from Kenedy High School in Kenedy, TX., and was a proud U.S. Army veteran and civil service retiree from Kelly AFB. He is preceded in death by his wife Edelia De La Garza, son George De La Garza and parents Damian and Santos De La Garza. David is survived by his daughter Cynthia Ann Mendiola, son David De La Garza Jr., (Kathy), five grandchildren Aaron Mendiola (Maria), Kristen Siquian (John), Lauren De La Garza, Megan De La Garza, and Lindsey De La Garza, sister Alicia Mendoza (Bennie), and other numerous family members and friends. David dedicated his life to his family, attending as many of his children's and grandchildren's sporting and school events as possible, as he was their number one fan. He coached baseball, basketball, and flag football for St. Henry's CYO for many years, leaving behind a legacy of love and respect. He now lives on in the memories of all who knew him, and through his children, grandchildren and children yet to come. The family would like to thank the Heights on Huebner for the care and compassion they showed him while in their care.
