

David Garcia Jr.

November 19, 1957 - May 17, 2024

David Garcia Jr. was born to Andrea and David Garcia Sr. in San Antonio Texas on November 19, 1957. He passed away on May 17, 2024. He is preceded in passing by his parents. David is survived by his brothers, Steve Garcia, and Manuel (Manny) Garcia, his aunts, Theresa Mora, and Shirley Gonzales, as well as numerous cousins and close friends.

David graduated from Highlands High School in '76 then went on to San Antonio College. From that point he spent 20+ years at Acosta as a territory manager. In his free time, he devoted himself to God and became a Deacon at First Baptist Church as well as a member of Gideons International. He was also a big sports fan and enjoyed watching the Spurs and Cowboys. He loved President John F. Kennedy and could often be found researching and reading up on his favorite president. He loved to read and had a massive collection of books. He was a big collector of lots of memorabilia such as model cars, movie posters, and Beatle's merchandise. His love for cars went beyond just the small models as well. He loved Ford specifically. David was an avid James Bond 007 fan as well. His favorite spot to eat at was Bill Miller's BBQ and ate there as often as he could. He was a very sociable person that hardly ever met a stranger. He will be dearly missed.
