

David J. Jacobs

September 16, 1953 - April 11, 2014

David was born in London, England, September 16, 1953 and passed away unexpectedly April 11, 2014, in Shavano Park, TX. Even though we only had a short time together we had many wonderful times together. He was an amazing tour guide on our trips to London. He loved our trip to Tombstone, AZ as he was a lover of American history especially the "wild west". His true passion was for sports, especially English football. His favorite team was Brentford. He loved watching the English Premier League games whenever they were on and was looking forward to the World Cup. We travelled to several places together and had such great times together. David loved gardening and enjoyed planting various flowers in the yard along with his roses that reminded him of England. He loved playing with our dog Buster, who was Dave's little "sidekick". David retired in June 2011 from the Ealing Council in London where he worked as a Park Ranger. He came to live in Shavano Park in June 2012 and we were married in August 2012. He is survived by his wife, Louise Jacobs; his mother, Lydia Jacobs; sister, Debbie Kimber Steve; nephew, Aaron Kimber; daughter, Victoria Jacobs; grandsons, Alfie Jacobs-Green, Luke O'Connell; brother-in-law, Ben Watson Patricia; stepsons, Charles Steck Paula, Benjamin Steck Jennifer, grandson, Caden Steck, granddaughter, Carlie Steck. He made a lot of friends here and I think all of us feel it was a privilege and honor to have known him. Dave was a very kind, compassionate man with a great sense of humor. He will always be my "sweet handsome Englishman" and may you rest in peace my darling.
