

David R. Laurel

July 11, 1996 - September 13, 2022

David Ricardo Laurel went into eternal rest on September 13, 2022. He was born to Maria Laurel and David Manuel Laurel on July 11, 1996. He is survived by his parents and stepmother Catherine Michelle Laurel, his paternal grandmother Estella Laurel and his brothers Marcelo Moya (Travis), Paul Moya and Dante Laurel. He is preceded in death by his paternal grandfather Hector V. Laurel Sr., his maternal grandparents Richard and Edalia Arriola, his paternal great aunts Genoveva Bonugli and Dolores Pesina and his maternal uncle Ollie Rochester.

David managed the family owned business, Laurel P.M. and Oil change. He loved his family and his brothers were his best friends. He was always ready to help anyone in need. He loved to work on his motorcycles and old cars. His favorite music were oldies. His favorite music artist was Ricky Nelson and his favorite band was Metallica. He loved all animals especially his dogs. He also fed and cared for all the neighborhood stray cats.

He made the adult decision at the age of 15 to be an organ donor. In death he was able to save many lives. We would like to thank the staff at Brook Army Medical Center (BAMC) and Texas Organ Sharing Alliance (TOSA) for helping to honor his wishes.

“ Just found out a few minutes ago of this , my prayers n thoughts to family. Today when I walked in for a DOT trailer inspection right away I felt the absence of the great smile that would come in any minute to greet me always with a smile. David St. , he will be missed, I would drive by n he would wave or I would see him on his scooter on WW White Rd. Maybe Rest In Peace. Matthew 5:4
