“ Thinking of all of you at this time, can't believe tomorrow will be a year. Uncle Dave was always funny, smart and had a story to share. Words cannot express how much all of you mean to me, today and over the years. May the love and memories of Uncle Dave carry you through now and always. He is smiling and watching over each of you and his love lives on with you. Love and Hugs, Denise

Uncle Dave, It's been two years now, funny time goes fast and slow at the same time. Aunt Charlotte went to be with you last June. She was a trouper while she was here without you, but I knew she couldn't wait to be with you again. I miss your smile and your stories and the kindness and love I felt every time I visited. Miss you both dearly. Aunt Charlotte was always so insightful sharing words of wisdom whenever we would talk. I was always amazed about how right on she was about so many things. Well...love you guys. It's time to get going. Love, Denise
