“ Brother,

I am so happy that I got to spend the last 4 very important days with you and so Happy that our Lord and Savior gave us this extra time. You made us laugh, smile and remember days gone by as a family. I can still hear you say "Good" and "Thank You" when anyone asked how you were feeling although I knew you weren't feeling good. You were always kind to everyone and anyone. I know it was hard for you to let go but I know Momma, Daddy, Sonny and Robert were waiting for you but like the clergy said when God was ready for you he would be there and he was. We, as your family, know that you no longer feel pain and for that we are so happy for you. We will always miss you but we have you in our hearts forever. Loving you always, your sister.

“Dad...I'm so proud that you were chosen by god to be my father. You were a great man who was always friendly, kind and polite to everyone. I was able to learn so much from you over the years which I will continue to pass on to my family. I will always cherish my memories of the times where we would be fishing, hunting, working on cars or simply taking a ride in the country just to spend sometime together.

I love you dad and will miss you but look forward to seeing you in heaven some day.
