“ My sincere heartfelt condolences to David's family. David will be sorely missed. I first met David when I got involved with the union in the mid 1980's. I would always see him at the old Union Hall taking care of the grounds and taking care of what needed attention. David was well known and respected. He and I would talk and he would tell me many stories. In 1992 when I became Union President I would see David almost daily until I left office in 1996. He will be missed by many who knew him. May He Rest in Eternal Peace.
