“ I scrolled threw your FB feeds and stopped on your recent pics of dad on Father’s Day he was so loved by you girls so held in a high regard of love and respect. I know his presence will be sorely missed his strength will forever keep in your memories. He’s was the Ruiz patriarch the man, so rough and tough sometimes like he just wanted to let it be known “I rule here”, not in a dominating way; just in a “I’m surrounded by girls, let me be in my man space with my man Mustache”. He was such a sweet, gentle grandpa he cherished your mom he was the man that would do anything for his daughters I know that for sure. The most beautiful part of his loss is the reception he is partaking in as he arrives on the other side of the stars and that my beloved girls is his welcome into an eternity that is beyond any beauty we will ever know on this earth, and for that I’m filled with joy for his departure. I love you Mama Lupe, Desirae, Deanna.
