

David Anthony Silva

August 6, 1959 - October 11, 2022

David Anthony Silva born in San Antonio, TX on August 6, 1959 and is now with the Lord as of October 11, 2022 at the age of 63. David was a plumber by trade but could help fix just about anything you needed help with. A man who would always make you laugh even if at his own cost. He had one-liners for everybody and everything and so much love for the people dear in his life. Dave's laugh and smile will always be remembered. As Billy Joel would put it "he's quick with a joke, or to light up your smoke, but there's someplace he'd rather be". David placed his family of highest value. He was a fisherman and a hunter and loved watching his Spurs and Cowboys. He loved to be on a ranch or riding a horse. He lost his vision later in life but always pushed on and stayed resilient. By the grace of God, David grew stronger in faith in his later years.

He is preceded in death by his parents Alicia and Reynaldo Silva. He is survived by his daughter Desiree Silva and his siblings: sisters, Norma Almanza and Ana Santana, brother Roland with wife Gloria Silva. Nephews and nieces: Rene (wife Sarah) and Aaron Almanza, David (wife Bridget) and Zachry Arambula, Ryane and Jared Silva. He will be dearly missed.

Forever in our hearts is Super Dave
