

David James Tse Jr.

July 15, 1994 - July 18, 2017

David James Tse, Jr. passed into Eternal Life unexpectedly on Tuesday, July 18, 2017. We are devastated, heartbroken and grieving for the beautiful spirit and precious being that he was. Kind. Gentle. Generous. Loving. Honest. Funny. Curious. Athletic. Intelligent. We love you more than you will ever know.

David was born July 15, 1994 in San Antonio to James Tse, Sr. and Melissa Hurtubise Tucker who survive him. He was a graduate of Tom C. Clark High School in 2012 and attended the University of Texas at San Antonio. He was the founder, owner and CEO of Vesuvian Interactive, a video game design and virtual reality company. David's vision for his company was that Vesuvian was built upon three core pillars: Passion, Polish and Precision. He believed that every truly great creation is built upon these three core principals and he wanted them to be the foundation for everything he did.

In addition to his parents, David is survived by his brothers, Trent Thomas and Jason Tse; his parents' spouses, Ramona Tse and Bryan Tucker; step siblings, Ashley and Zoe Tucker and Isabel Gillenwater; paternal grandparents, David and Lydia Tse; maternal grandparents, Robert and Linda Hurtubise; aunts and uncles, Dhyana Carole Tse, Debbie and Mike Mollicone, Daphne Tse, DeeDee and Mike Silver, Joey and Nicci Tse, Jason Hurtubise, Gino Hurtubise and Jenny Hurtubise; cousins, Michael and Meghan

Mollicone, Jared, Jr. and Jacob Phelps, Nathan, Hannah and Sarah Tse, and Kai Tse Hashemiyoon; step grandparents, Richard and Betty Rangel, and Cary and Niska Tucker; step aunts and uncles, Ricky and Alma Rangel and Keith and Helle Tucker and Melisa Tucker; and numerous other family members.
