“ Well, you're tied to me like a button on my blouse and I'll keep you in my heart forevermore, Dave! Sorry I could not attend the services but I have several foster critters I could not leave at home, two that are sick, but it doesn't matter, because what we shared was formed in our souls since the first time we met when you were just an itsy-bitsy boy and beyond and here in me your presence shall always stay, until we meet again when I pass on. Pray for me and all of us. Will always miss you, Primo~~ALWAYS!! I have your voice in my memory as clear as when we would speak and that'll never go away!! You are free now!! Rest from this world in peace now! Love you eternally...

“ *Dear Sweet Dave,
You were so deeply loved and cared about by Indian Jim and I, and so many others. You always brought a light when we talked, got together and went concerting...
Your passing is shocking but knowing God is embracing you as you continue your journey with your mom and dad is consolation that respites our hearts and souls. The world and our lives will simply not be the same knowing you are not here with us to laugh, talk, share and embrace. God engulf you in His love dear sweet Dave. Our thoughts and love are with your family.

“ Dave, it is heart broken to hear you departed so soon in your life. It has been an honor being a close friend of yours for the past 27 years. We had a good run, never a dull moment surrounded with many friends and adventures. It will be hard knowing you will not be at my side at any future concerts. I promise you I will have a drink or two for you at all future show. And when my time comes we will have that drink together at our first concert in heaven just like old times. Dave you were a big part of my life and you are missed like a brother. You will always be in our (Lakota and Indian Jim and family) heart and prayers. You are now at peace with your beloved Mom and Dad. Dave you are missed but not forgotten. Our condolences to the Vidaurri Family.
