“ Uncle Dave was very special. He was there for me when I lost my Dad, his older brother. He encouraged me to apply with Southwestern Bell, which I did, and spent 31 years as an employee and am now in my 20th year as a consultant. He was a great son to my Grandparents and always a very easy going, calming influence on all our family. In the last few years, we would plan to meet for lunch, as he was a foodie and always wanted to try someplace he'd read about. He will be missed, but is now in good hands with our loved ones.

“ He was my first boss when I started with Southwestern Bell in Austin, Texas in 1959 and we remained lifelong friends. He was class gentleman and fun to be around.
