“ At the Thanksgiving meal I was sharing with friends yesterday, we were asked to comment on a memorable Thanksgiving. My memory was when I was a little girl, we had the Thanksgiving meal at my Grandmother's, and after the meal, we adjourned to the living room where my Uncle Dave married my Aunt Virginia in front of the fireplace. My next memory was at my Aunt Nancy's wedding when Uncle Dave entertained me while everyone else was rehearsing and celebrating. I have more memories of Uncle Dave over the past 60 years. He was such a special Uncle - devoted to his family, his job in very interesting places, and to his church and his faith. We will miss you. with love to the family, Sarah Toppins
