“ Mr. Zakeski was my 7th grade home room teacher at Lowell Middle School back in the day. He was a quiet & stern man but kept everyone in line. He was respected, something you don't see much of nowadays. I ran into him many years later while I was working off duty & in uniform. He looked the same & very well I might add, I even told him as much. He didn't remember me of course but I remembered him. He was one of those people you didn't easily forget. He looked happy & he had informed me that life had been kind to him. I know it's been years since his passing & I'm deeply sorry I hadn't known before. Rest In Peace Sir.
