“ Such a great man. I remember going to his ranch and riding horses, then we went to the towers for dinner. His laugh was just like my grandpas (his brother). No mistaking a Bodell. I remember him calling every Christmas. RIP Uncle Dawes. Xoxoxoxo

“ *I am sorry to hear of the passing of Dawes. He always brightened my day when we ran into each other and we would share stories about his old English sheepdog that was a sibling to mine.
