“ Remembering Guadalupe Guadarrama Garcia a beautiful person inside and out glad to call her my mommy. She never hesitated to do anything for people she lived to love all people..she had 4 children that she loved with all her might..and grandchildren as well as great grandchildren that there was no words to explain what family was to her because she loved everyone unconditionally. she loved hard especially for her family. I will always remember my mom, my friend, my go too and my Honey..Thank you for loving me.. God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around her and whispered come with me young lady.. I need you in heaven.. I love you my mommy Rest in peace now..

“ My husband was a true man of God. A strong man full of wisdom, fearless and loved Jesus more than life. He was a man to be counted on, whenever a brother in Christ was in need. He loved with all of his heart. At first glance, you would think he had a stare that could stop you in your tracks. But he had a heart, oh my gosh, a heart for the homeless and prayed for everyone! He would text and email daily scriptures to many. You see, he loved sharing the Word of God. He lived it, ate it and walked it. He wanted others to experience the love of Christ, a true love that is unconditional and everlasting. He loved his family, his friends and total strangers. I remember witnessing something truly beautiful. I saw him extend the invitation to a total stranger. His daughters had tried for many years to convince their father to believe in the one and only that saves, Jesus Christ. As tears rolled down the mans face as he accepted Jesus as his true Savior, I was in awe and wonder. My husband, a true warrior and servant, in every way. Underneath that tough and rugged look, flowed the love of Christ. I miss him every day. Not one day passes by that I don't think of him. His name, Elias Buentello, Jr. A warrior, a servant, a believer, a wonderful husband, son and friend. I know he has heard the words that all of us long to hear. Well done, good and faithful servant.

I love you my I love, I love you.
