“ Love you Mom. I miss you so much and it's only been a few days since you left us to be with those who have gone on before you. No doubt there was a huge party in heaven when you got there. I can't wait to see you again.

Our friendship was a tapestry woven with laughter, tears, dinners, lunches, stories, and unconditional love. Through every season of life, Deanie stood beside me—not just as a friend, but as family.
