

Deborah (Debbie) Susan Ridinger

July 15, 1965 - May 19, 2026

Deborah (Debbie) Susan Ridinger was called home by her Lord and Savior on May 19th, 2026, at the age of 60 in San Antonio, Texas. Debbie was born on July 15th, 1965, in San Antonio, Texas to Frederick W. Jones and Cheryl C. Jones.

She was a loving wife, proud mother, daughter, sister and friend. She built her life with devotion and dedication to her Savior, Jesus Christ, family, friends and career. She was a committed and humble servant to others, and as a devout Christian, she found purpose in bringing all closer to God. More than anything, she lived her life humbly and shared a wish that her passing serves as a "Testimony of God and His never-ending, very gracious Love for all of us." While always focused on faith and family, she had great knowledge and skills in business. As a driven businesswoman, she became a successful entrepreneur and community leader who accomplished all that she set her mind to.

She also enjoyed all things about nature, and some of her many favorite things are Stargazer Lilies, Purple Passion plants, and the Painted Bunting bird. She loved the bright colors red, orange, and lime green. Debbie was proud of home state of Texas and was a true Texan at heart. She had a passion for travel and looked forward to visiting every corner of the state, including state parks, Big Bend and historical locations. She enjoyed windshield time on frequent highway drives, always embracing the sights and smells of the wildflowers along the Texas roads and Hill Country. On any given weekend you would find her dressed in her favorite attire – shorts, a t-shirt, and often barefoot.

Debbie truly loved “God’s amazing creations,” thoroughly enjoying nature’s gifts including animals, soil, stars, cool rocks and fossils, and “...especially caves.” She loved sharing the experiences with her family at her other favorite places, such as rivers and lakes, the coast, and Fiesta Texas. She often paused, looking up into the sky and marveling at airplanes as they passed by.

Debbie loved Christian music, from old time gospels to upbeat modern Christian Rock songs. She also loved rock and roll and disco too, proving that she was forever a teenager at heart. She had a great passion for modern architecture of homes and would say things like “Life is Crazy!” and “complete insanity” – when playfully referring to the atmosphere of the loving home she helped create and build. Her creativity was also visible in the witty poems, tongue-twisters, and huge jigsaw puzzles she enjoyed. Debbie was extremely musically talented, something she instilled in her children. She loved to play the piano, and her favorite piano piece was Maple Leaf Rag.

Preceded in death by her father, Frederick W. Jones, she is survived by her lifelong spouse Roy H. Ridinger III, daughter Rachel N. Ridinger Rains, son Aaron T. Ridinger, daughter Rheanna G. Ridinger McGinnis (spouse John Paul McGinnis), son Andrew K. Ridinger, mother Cheryl C. Jones and sister Karen C. Jones Pepin.

Her family is comforted knowing she is in Paradise now, free from pain, and surrounded by Eternal Love. Debbie was beloved by all who came to know her, and though she will be deeply missed, her loving kindness and beautiful character will be forever remembered as a blessing from God.

Visitation will be on Friday, May 29, 2026 from 5:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels Dominion, 20900 IH 10 West, San Antonio, Texas 78257. The Service will be on Saturday, May 30, 2026 at 11:00 A.M. at the Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will follow at the Mission Burial Park North Dominion.

In honor of Debbie, you may consider wearing one of her favorite colors to show respect on the dates of her remembrance.

For your consideration, you may donate to her favorite Christian charity – the Hill Country Daily Bread. <https://www.hillcountrydailybread.org/>

“ I remember your children. They have heart, they have character, and they have persistence. They love God, and they care about other human beings. The apple doesn't fall far from the tree. I'm sorry I didn't know you better, but your children are a testament to the life you lived. John 10:10b I have come that they may have abundant life. You have set your family on a path to glorify God Romans 8:28 and God is working all things to their good and His Glory!
